Club Assembly

From the Club President's Handbook.

Club assemblies offer an opportunity to exchange ideas and share information about issues of importance to your members. Most clubs hold four to six assemblies per year.

Encourage attendance by all members, but especially new members. The Club President, or another designated club officer, should lead club assemblies. Seek out member input to make certain that the meetings address their interests and concerns. Below are some suggested timeframes and topics for club assemblies.

TIMING	PURPOSE
Immediately after the district training assembly (before 1 July)	To share plans developed at the district training assembly (club president-elect presides)
After 1 July	To discuss goals for the year
Two weeks before the district governor's visit	To prepare for the visit
During the governor's visit	To discuss the club's status with the governor
Midpoint of year (January/February)	To review progress toward club goals and determine the plan for the rest of the year
April or May	To provide an opportunity for open discussion (ideas for bringing club projects and activities to completion)

Lawrence Heilman

PARTNER OR PATRÓN, THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S AID PROGRAM IN BOLIVIA, 1942-2013

"Left unsung, the noblest deed will die." Pindar from Isthmean Odes"

"Titanic in its concentration of will, with unprecedented triumph in all spheres of material aggrandizement, its civilization yet produces as a whole a singular impression of insufficiency, of emptiness." José

Enrique Rodó from Ariel

On May 1, 2013, The New York Times reported that President Evo Morales announced he was expelling the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) from Bolivia. He was quoted as saying, "Some institutions of the United States Embassy continue to conspire against . . . the people [of Bolivia] and especially against the country...." and as a result, "We have decided to expel U.S.A.I.D. from Bolivia." After receiving more than $4.7 billion of U.S. taxpayer funds over the past 70 years to support development efforts in Bolivia, how could Morales decide the USAID relationship should be terminated in such an abrupt manner? The answer to this question is rooted in a complex slice of history beginning with the assistance provided to Bolivia by the U.S. Government during World War II.

Lawrence C. Heilman is research associate in the Anthropology Department at the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History. He served twenty years with USAID as a senior foreign service officer.
