THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do...

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Silent Auction to benefit the North Bethesda Rotary Foundation.

The Foundation provides financial assistance to deserving individuals who need help in pursuing college training, and to support worthy community organizations.

Currently the Foundation funds full one-year scholarships to Montgomery College.

Today's Speakers:

Lieutenant Rueben Rosario is a Howard Law School graduate and a thirteen-year veteran of the Montgomery County Police Department. He formerly worked as a Detective in the Drug Interdiction Unit and a Sergeant in the Rockville Detective Bureau and Special Assignment Team. He currently serves as Lieutenant in the Field Services Bureau, which oversees Traffic, Special Operation, Animal Services, Office of Public Information Divisions. Lt. Rosario frequently speaks at community engagement events regarding safety, race relations and crime. Lt. Rosario strives to build relationships in every part of our community by providing the highest quality police service possible and serving everyone who lives, works and visits Montgomery County.

Detective Amanda Coffey is a seven-year veteran of the Montgomery County Police Department. She studied Criminal Justice at Mount St. Mary's University and was a patrol officer in the 4th District. Det. Coffey is currently assigned to the Centralized Auto Theft Section. In addition to her current position, she is also active with Project Lifesaver, a program designed to protect and quickly locate individuals with cognitive disorders who are prone to the life-threatening behavior of wandering. Det. Coffey strives to increase citizen participation in crime prevention and community engagement programs.
